Prerequisite(s) (REQUIRED):
Students should demonstrate successful completion with a grade of C or higher in 9th grade or previous English.
Corequisite(s) (REQUIRED):
None
Brief Course Description (REQUIRED):
This course explores the construction of culture and the uses of folklore and mythology in J.K Rowling's Harry Potter series. In this course we will explore a range of topics, themes, and issues in Harry Potter , with special focus themes as they are developed and enacted in the books, films, and in fan responses. In addition to enjoyment and appreciation, the course will focus on developing a deeper understanding of, as well as critical and literary analysis of the Harry Potter phenomenon. The central purpose of this elective course/program is to encourage students to expand on their critical reading skills through the study of high interest reading material. By encouraging students to engage in critical reading of both the Harry Potter novels as well criticism of the works, students will build on skills that will enable them to be more successful in their academic courses.

B. COURSE CONTENT
Course Purpose (REQUIRED): What is the purpose of this course? Please provide a brief description of the goals and expected outcomes. Note: More specificity than a simple recitation of the State Standards is needed.
During this Harry Potter-themed course, students will perform a variety of critical analyses of the Harry Potter series (inclusive of both the novels and the films) as both cultural phenomena and progressive young adult literature. Discussions will focus on literary, sociological, cultural, and contextual analyses of the narrative text itself, the adaptation process resulting in the films, the literary value of the novels, and the staggering fan reception of the series. Students will practice close reading skills in order to analyze form, content, and significance of the texts; think, speak, and write in a more thoughtful, critical, and informed fashion; work collaboratively and design and carry out independent research, creative writing, and creative projects. Using popular culture texts that capture students' interests, we can move students from reading as fans to reading as critics if we are prepared to help them think deeply about how issues such as class, gender, and race operate in popular fiction.
Course Outline (REQUIRED): Detailed description of topics covered. All historical knowledge is expected to be empirically based, give examples. Show examples of how the text is incorporated into the topics covered.
