State briefly your general evaluation of the proposed text, listing important considerations to be evaluated in selecting a District text.	I support the Pearson Curriculum for the 9th grade textbook adoption
5	3	4	3	5	1	3	3	The biggest issue is the lack of organization and ease of use regarding the online resources.	Yes
5	4	4	3	4	2	4	3	I think that the text and materials are very good and look forward to exploring the supplemental and digital materials more down the road. I would need more training of the digital aspects in order to use them effectively. There are aspects of the digital materials that seem a bit glitchy and/or hard to manipulate.	Yes
4	4	4	3	4	3	4	4	I like the curriculum. I think there is a lot of components to use and the readings seem to be a little more interesting for the students. There are a lot of projects included in the curriculum, which can lead to engaging instruction.	Yes
5	2	3	3	3	1	3	3	The stories need to be a bit more interesting and variety.	No
5	3	4	4	3	1	3	3	The book is good, the online stuff really needs a whole lot of work.	Yes
5	4	5	4	4	2	4	3	I believe this curriculum does an excellent job of providing a structured way to teach students in a whole group, small group, and independent setting. The texts are accessible and challenging. The writing performance tasks are excellent benchmark indicators to be used for collaborative data. Big improvement.	Yes
4	4	5	4	4	1	3	4	I feel comfortable supporting this curriculum because of the number of resources teachers and students have allowed to them. The pacing and content provides the necessary rigor to push learning forward.	Yes
5	3	4	5	4	4	3	3	I like the Pearson stuff a lot. I think it keeps us organized and streamlined in the classroom. I would recommend that we alter the writing portion to fit our needs better, this can obviously be agreed upon through PLC.	Yes
4	4	4	4	3	3	4	4	I like the text. I feel strongly that the online platform needs a lot of help in the way of integration with current systems.	Yes
4	4	4	3	3	2	3	3	will work	Yes
5	4	5	5	5	4	5	4	Pearson does a great job incorporating a variety of texts within their units, in addition to a variety of writing opportunities. In addition, the consumable is a great addition to the classroom that is providing the students with valuable annotating skills. The online platform is very layered and confusing for students. Also, the audio function is not very user friendly. All in all though, I feel the benefits of Pearson outweigh the cons.	Yes
5	4	4	5	3	3	5	5	No text is perfect, but all-in-all, this is good- it is standards-based material, it has good organization and focus, the reading materials are age and grade appropriate, and the vocabulary, comprehension check, and assessments are relevant.	Yes
4	3	4	5	5	4	4	5	It is generally aligned to the standards and provides both hard copies and online resources. The consumables provide students with opportunity to interact with the text. On the other hand, the online resources are not very user friendly and could use some improvement to make them more effective. Some of the writing prompts are good, but the end of unit 4 prompt is weak, barely using the big question or the eq as a prompt; it needs revision. The research assignment could also be better.	Yes
4	3	5	4	4	3	4	4	I am impressed with the volume and quality of resources as well as the variety of text selections. I love the consumables as it allows the readers to annotate, highlight, and much more as they interact with the text.	Yes

5	5	5	5	5	2	3	3	I love that there are leveled text to give access to all students and audio.	Yes
